

TEST 3

I. Choose the words that best complete the sentences in the text.

The money that some professional sportsmen earn shouldn't impress anyone when you take into (1) the fact that only a few of them manage to (2) immortality and everlasting fame. And once they reach their (3) and display their talent at their best, they are fully conscious that their brilliant careers won't last for ever. They live under a constant pressure of being (4) and subsequently replaced by someone who is younger, faster and more (5). For that reason, objectives like retirement benefits and pensions are (6) great concern to all professional athletes.

Some of the retired competitors go as far as to organize strikes and rallies to (7) their protest against any policy unresponsive to their demands (8) the younger professionals seek more upgrading solutions to the problem as more and more of them attach a proper significance to (9) a solid education, even at university level. Such an approach should help them find interesting and well-paid jobs (10) their sports career is over.

A completely new strategy has been (11) by the schools priding themselves (12) supporting their own teams. Their authorities insist that the sports clubs members achieve high academic standards or else they are debarred from partaking in certain sports events, which may lead to further (13) in their professional careers.

By these practical and most effective (14), combining education with sports activity, the (15) of the professional athlete as being brainless and unintelligent may eventually be changing to the sportsmen's benefit.
