

11

35 to pass sth to pass smtg przegłosować coś
 36 foreign national 'for naefn' obcokrajowiec
 37 to settle down to sell down osiść
 38 to up sticks and leave to up stiks and liv spakować

42 long-term long-term na dłuższą metę, długofalowy
(tylko przed rzeczownikami)
43 retire retire emeryt
44 eligible for sth (wydaje się) kwalifikujący się do czegoś
45 short-term krótkoterminowy, tymczasowy

51 insurance in Japanese ubezpieczenie, ubezpieczenia
52 open-door policy 'otwarte drzwi', polityka
otwartych drzwi

Beach in Dubai

Following this growing trend, new government legislation³⁴ was passed³⁵ in 2019 aimed at current expatriates and foreign nationals³⁶ over the age of 55. It is hoped that this may entice even more to settle down³⁷

According to Michael Kortbawi, a partner at lawyers BSA, these new regulations have made it easier for people to stay and feel welcome after making a name for themselves and calling it a day.

longer a city where you come to work, you take your money and go back," he explains to Euronews. "You can invest, spend your retirement⁴⁴ here and you can make long-term⁴⁵ plans ... So the reasons for coming to Dubai are changing."

Information available on the Emirates

- Invest in a property⁴⁶ worth AED 2 mln (USD 550,000).
- Have financial savings⁴⁷ of no less than AED 1 mln (USD 275,000).
- Have an active income of no less than AED 30,000 (USD 8,750) per month.

- AED 20,000 (USD 5,500) per month. If granted a visa, it is then valid⁴⁸ for a maximum of five years, after which it may be renewed⁴⁹ following a further series of checks.

must also have valid health insurance⁵¹ for the United Arab Emirates, which must be obtained before any applications are sent off.

.110

79

Speaking of the new incentives,
Director-General of Dubai Tourism Helal
Saeed Almarri commented "The Retire