1 Voting and elections

Complete the sentences with the words in the box.

co	palition ctatorship	landslide main	rigging
ı.		government's policie	es, so I voted fo
2.	There are three country.	part	ies in our
3.	The government	t won the election l	ру а
4.		resulted in are no-one won an o
5.		ty formed aaller right-wing part
6.	The government election so they	t was accused of would win.	the
7.		rtyth
8.		e ain	S.#3
	sentences abo	ese sentences wit ve. Use some nou
9.	They abandoned their manifesto.	I the	they outlined in
10.	Iraq had ayears.	for the bes	st part of 40
н.	The government	t rushed the bill thro	ough
12.	The three-party year.	colla	psed after a
13.	The opposition	is in 1	total disarray.
14.	They've called a	n for	8 th August.
15.	They invaded us	and installed a pup	pet
16.	We need more	women standing for	•
		rly brought down th	ne

2 It's a fine line

If you say it's a fine line between two things, you think there's not much difference between them and it's easy to cross that line – move from one thing to the other.

Match the sentence beginnings with the endings.

ı.	It's a fine line l	etween s	mooth an	d
2.:	It's a fine line l	etween l	iberator a	nd
3.	It's a fine line b	etween g	enius and
4.	lt's a fine line l	etween r	news and
5.	It's a fine line l	etween h	elping and	ı
6.	lt's a fine line b	etween c	outbreak a	nd
7 .	lt's a fine line l	etween e	enough and	ł
8.	lt's a fine line b	etween f	ear and
a.	propaganda.	d. sma	rmy.	g.	occupier.
b.	insanity.	e. exhi	laration.	h.	interfering	g.
c.	too much.	f. epid	lemic.

3 Talking about politicians

Complete the sentences with the words in the box.

	charismatic direct down-to-earth	hypocrite passionate	shifty spark
ı.	He's got an aur	a about him. He's	very
2.		of the people. He out him. He seems	e's got no very
3.		ss as being really ns to really believe	::::::::::::::::::::::::::::::::::::::
4.	, ,	ht with people, l'l – always says	l give him that. He's what he thinks.
5.	He never gives	a straight answer.	He's just really
6.	He comes acros	ss as a bit dull. He o get elected.	hasn't got the
7:	He doesn't prac	ctise what he prea	ches. He's such a
8.	He's very smoo	th. I've never seer	him get

.....in front of the cameras.

4 Sentences starting with What

Rewrite the sentences so that they start with What and a verb to emphasise how you feel. The first one has been done as an example.

- He won't admit to having made mistakes, which is really annoying.
 What really annoys me is the fact that he won't admit to having made mistakes.
- 2. The lack of investment in education is worrying.
- They've been ploughing an enormous amount of money into nuclear weapons! It's very disturbing.
- The guy actually took responsibility for the cock-up and resigned, which was a pleasant change.
- Proposing to introduce trial without jury is a concern.
- I know mistakes happen that's fair enough but this wasn't an isolated incident. That's the scary thing.
- He speaks down to people all the time. I get really angry about it.

5 Word building: elect

Complete the sentences with the words in the box. You will need to use some words more than once.

elected	elective	re-elected
election	electoral	unelectable
electioneering	electorate
100000000000000000000000000000000000000		BEATTERS OF FIRM

- The upcoming general promises to be very closely contested.
- 2. The party is a shambles. They're totally
- 3. There's pressure to reform thesystem.
- None of the European commissioners are, but they wield a lot of power nevertheless.
- After the disaster, the opposition was accused of when they criticised the government's performance. The government said the opposition were exploiting the tragedy for their own benefit.
- 7. The Conservatives suffered their worst defeat ever.
- 8. My wife decided to have an caesarean when she had our second child.

6 Collocations

Complete the sentences with the missing collocations from page 50 of the Coursebook.

- I. I tried to a joke about the situation, but it flat.

- 4. In the to the elections there were allegations that the mayor was trying to the election.
- 5. The government has a controversial policy at getting people off the dole and into work.
- The government's stance on immigration has completely public opinion. They've even admitted that there are of opinion in the cabinet.

Stance on

Complete the sentences with these words.

abortion	education	pensions
drugs	foreign policy

- Their stance on is a bit confused. First they want to introduce a national curriculum, and then they want to increase parental choice regarding school selection.
- 3. Their stance onseems far too liberal. I think it should be banned.
- They take a hard line on, which I approve of. They want to toughen the law and increase prison sentences for possession.

Find examples of these kinds of collocations:

verb-noun adjective-noun noun-noun